.. Respondents

Whereas the Court upon perusing the Contempt Case and the affidavit filed herein and upon hearing the arguments of Sri V. Sudhakar Reddy, Advocate for the petitioner observed as follows:

"The Contempt Case is pending from 1998 and it is alleged that the order of this Court passed in 1997 is not being complied with. Counter has been filed, but there is nothing in the counter to suggest that the order of this Court has been complied with. It is only stated in the counter that the petitioner has suppressed the facts and obtained the orders from this Court. That can not be a ground for violating the orders of the Court. If the order of this Court was bad, the respondents had liberty of challenging those orders. It is submitted that a review petition had been filed. Pendency of the review petition would not entitled the respondents not to implement the order of this Court. It may be pointed out that nobody appears for the respondents".

And Whereas the Court in these circumstances while admitting the Contempt Case directed the Registry to issue Notice in Form No. I to the respondents for their appearance before this Court on 24-08-2007;
